

Q1. DEFINES

S. No.	WORD	DEFINE
1	Beak	Hard curved or pointed part of a bird's mouth.
2	Molars	Strong and broad teeth that help to chew and grind the food.

Q2. GIVE ONE WORD

S.N.	Question	Answer
1.	The two very long pointed teeth on of an elephant are called_____	tusks
2.	Which type of beak helps parrot to crack nuts and hard fruits?	Hooked beak
3.	_____ -eating animals have well-developed canines.	Flesh
4.	Name two birds which have long beaks, which help them to catch fish easily.	Heron, stork, kingfisher
5.	Which is another important organ of bird on their feet?	The claws
6.	_____ animals have well-developed incisors.	Grass eating
7.	Birds do not have _____ but they have beaks.	teeth
8.	Name two birds which use their beaks to eat seeds and grains.	Pigeons and hen
9.	Name two wading birds.	Cranes, herons
10.	Name two birds that have short and hard beaks.	Sparrows, pigeons
11.	What kind of feet do flesh-eating birds have?	Strong and sharp claws
12.	Name two flesh eating birds.	Eagle, hawk
13.	Name two perching birds.	Crows, sparrow
14.	Name two birds which have webbed feet.	Ducks and swans
15.	Flesh eating animals are called_____	carnivores

Chapter- 11 (Teeth, Beaks and Feet)

Q3. ANSWER IN ONE LINE

1.	Why do birds have different types of beaks?
Ans.	Birds have different types of beaks as they eat different types of food.
2.	How does a hen eat its food?
Ans	Hens mostly eat seeds and grains. They have short and hard beaks to break their food before eating.
3	What type of feet do the scratching birds have?
Ans.	Scratching birds have three strong toes with sharp nails in front and one short toe at the back.
4	An eagle has a sharp, hooked beak. Give reason
Ans.	An eagle has a sharp, hooked beak to pierce and tear the flesh of animals they eat.
5	Dogs have well-developed canine teeth. Give reason.
Ans.	Dogs have well-developed canine teeth to tear the flesh.
6	Ducks have webbed feet? Give reason.
Ans	Ducks have webbed feet that help them to use their feet as oars while swimming in water.
7	Cows have short and broad teeth at the back of their mouth. Give reason.
Ans.	Cows have short and broad teeth at the back of their mouth that are suitable for grinding grass.
8	What kind of beak does a woodpecker have and why?
Ans	Woodpeckers have a long and strong beak to tap the wood of trees.